

PUBLISHERS' SPRING ANNOUNCEMENTS

THEORY AND PRACTICE OF MODERN BUSINESS

Practical Books by Practical Men—The Psychology of Commerce and Its Hard Common Sense—Advertising, Buying and Selling.

A. B. C. OF IRON AND STEEL. Edited by A. O. Basset. Illustrated. Cleveland: O. Fenton Pub. Co., $10.

THE WALDO ENTERPRISE. By Oscar W. Waldo. Houghton Mifflin Co., $1.

This new magazine incorporates the mass of material previously published in the publication of Professor Perkins' Enterprise. It is a monthly magazine, containing a day set to come.

SEALY'S SUNSHINE. The Life and Work of Sealby L. Sealby. Evansville, Ind.: Sealby L. Sealby, $1.

SECRET OF AN EMPEROR. The. By the Count of Laredo. Translated from the Spanish. $1.

A popular biography by a woman who claims to be a descendant of Francis Joseph and Elisabeth.

JOHN FRENCH. By Cecil Chisholm. 12mo. $1.50.

A popular biography. Given the Field Marshal's signature.

STENSE FELLERIN HANDBOOK. WITH INFORMATION AND COMMENTS ON THE AMERICAN BUSINESS. By J. D. Ferguson, Chairman. $1.

THE ENDLESS OF GREAT AMERICANS. A HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES. Vol. I. "Tobacco," by Alexander Smith. Vol. II. "Leather," by John Smith. Vol. III. "Cotton," by John Smith. By Walter Johnson.

TRAVEL

Exploration—California African Hunting Grounds. SATURDAYS AROUND SAN FRANCISCO. By W. E. Bissell. Adelphi Press.

CAZIERON'S THE WONDERFUL. By Edwin C. Hazen. Hinsdale International Library Co., $2.

CAZIERON'S PADRES, THE AND THEIR MISSIONS. By G. Chase and Charles Pringle. Illustrations. The Houghton Mifflin Co., $2.

Each of the missions has a chapter especially devoted to it, which gives an interesting history of each.

THE BLIZZARD. THE. By Sir George Macaulay. Illustrated. 2 vols. J. B. Lippincott Co.

The story of the Arctic Antarctic expedition of 1881-83, and great stories of exploration, dangers, hardships and heroism.

GERMAN. THE. By Edward Edeworth. 8vo. $1.

A complete analysis of the principles and practices of life insurance, prepared under the supervision of the National Association of Life Underwriters.

NEW BUSINESS. THE. By Harry Tippet. Illustrated. Doubleday, Page & Co.

An analysis of the methods and mental processes that play a part in the writing of successful advertising.

SOCIAL REFORM. By W. H. Mallock. E. P. Dutton & Co.

An examination into the increase and distribution of wealth from 1801 to 1910.

TRUSTS AND COMPETITION. By John F. Crowley. A. C. McClurg & Co.

Defines trusts, their development and development, their uses and abuses, their utility, restraint of trade, federal policy as expressed in legislation, state of trusts abroad, prices under trusts, and the like.

LIFE INSURANCE. By Solomon S. Huebner. A. G. Aeplin & Co.

A complete analysis of the principles and practices of life insurance, prepared under the supervision of the National Association of Life Underwriters.

PROBLEMS IN MARKET DISTRIBUTION. By William H. Shaw. A. M. Harcourt University Press.

From 1907 to 1912 the Interstate Commerce Commission was engaged on a comprehensive system of investigation, research and compilation of the analysis and exposition of the Commission's classification of railroad accounts, not a part of the general classification of railroads, the classification of the general principles of railroad accounting, which includes a description of the way in which the accounts are taken up in detail, and methods of accounting prescribed by the Commission are taken up in detail.

SELLING LATIN AMERICA. By J. W. E. Aughton. 8vo. $1.

To sell, how to sell it. By an expert who has spent eighteen years in the Latin-American trade.

SOME PROBLEMS IN MARKET DISTRIBUTION. By William H. Shaw. A. M. Harcourt University Press.

The next step in the evolution of business practice is the development of a market distribution system corresponding to those which scientific management has introduced into methods of production.

SELLING IT. By E. Leichter. Funk & Wagnalls Co.

WRITING AN ADVERTISEMENT. By S. Roland Haverford College, Haverford, Penn. 1 set

An analysis of the methods and mental processes that play a part in the writing of successful advertising.

SOCIAL REFORM. By W. H. Mallock. E. P. Dutton & Co.

An examination into the increase and distribution of wealth from 1801 to 1910.

TRUSTS AND COMPETITION. By John F. Crowley. A. C. McClurg & Co.

Defines trusts, their development and development, their uses and abuses, their utility, restraint of trade, federal policy as expressed in legislation, state of trusts abroad, prices under trusts, and the like.

LIFE INSURANCE. By Solomon S. Huebner. A. G. Aeplin & Co.

A complete analysis of the principles and practices of life insurance, prepared under the supervision of the National Association of Life Underwriters.

PROBLEMS IN MARKET DISTRIBUTION. By William H. Shaw. A. M. Harcourt University Press.

From 1907 to 1912 the Interstate Commerce Commission was engaged on a comprehensive system of investigation, research and compilation of the analysis and exposition of the Commission's classification of railroad accounts, not a part of the general classification of railroads, the classification of the general principles of railroad accounting, which includes a description of the way in which the accounts are taken up in detail, and methods of accounting prescribed by the Commission are taken up in detail.

SELLING IT. By E. Leichter. Funk & Wagnalls Co.

WRITING AN ADVERTISEMENT. By S. Roland Haverford College, Haverford, Penn. 1 set

An analysis of the methods and mental processes that play a part in the writing of successful advertising.

SOCIAL REFORM. By W. H. Mallock. E. P. Dutton & Co.

An examination into the increase and distribution of wealth from 1801 to 1910.

TRUSTS AND COMPETITION. By John F. Crowley. A. C. McClurg & Co.

Defines trusts, their development and development, their uses and abuses, their utility, restraint of trade, federal policy as expressed in legislation, state of trusts abroad, prices under trusts, and the like.

LIFE INSURANCE. By Solomon S. Huebner. A. G. Aeplin & Co.

A complete analysis of the principles and practices of life insurance, prepared under the supervision of the National Association of Life Underwriters.

PROBLEMS IN MARKET DISTRIBUTION. By William H. Shaw. A. M. Harcourt University Press.

From 1907 to 1912 the Interstate Commerce Commission was engaged on a comprehensive system of investigation, research and compilation of the analysis and exposition of the Commission's classification of railroad accounts, not a part of the general classification of railroads, the classification of the general principles of railroad accounting, which includes a description of the way in which the accounts are taken up in detail, and methods of accounting prescribed by the Commission are taken up in detail.

SELLING IT. By E. Leichter. Funk & Wagnalls Co.

WRITING AN ADVERTISEMENT. By S. Roland Haverford College, Haverford, Penn. 1 set

An analysis of the methods and mental processes that play a part in the writing of successful advertising.

SOCIAL REFORM. By W. H. Mallock. E. P. Dutton & Co.

An examination into the increase and distribution of wealth from 1801 to 1910.

TRUSTS AND COMPETITION. By John F. Crowley. A. C. McClurg & Co.

Defines trusts, their development and development, their uses and abuses, their utility, restraint of trade, federal policy as expressed in legislation, state of trusts abroad, prices under trusts, and the like.

LIFE INSURANCE. By Solomon S. Huebner. A. G. Aeplin & Co.

A complete analysis of the principles and practices of life insurance, prepared under the supervision of the National Association of Life Underwriters.

PROBLEMS IN MARKET DISTRIBUTION. By William H. Shaw. A. M. Harcourt University Press.

From 1907 to 1912 the Interstate Commerce Commission was engaged on a comprehensive system of investigation, research and compilation of the analysis and exposition of the Commission's classification of railroad accounts, not a part of the general classification of railroads, the classification of the general principles of railroad accounting, which includes a description of the way in which the accounts are taken up in detail, and methods of accounting prescribed by the Commission are taken up in detail.

SELLING IT. By E. Leichter. Funk & Wagnalls Co.

WRITING AN ADVERTISEMENT. By S. Roland Haverford College, Haverford, Penn. 1 set

An analysis of the methods and mental processes that play a part in the writing of successful advertising.

SOCIAL REFORM. By W. H. Mallock. E. P. Dutton & Co.

An examination into the increase and distribution of wealth from 1801 to 1910.

TRUSTS AND COMPETITION. By John F. Crowley. A. C. McClurg & Co.

Defines trusts, their development and development, their uses and abuses, their utility, restraint of trade, federal policy as expressed in legislation, state of trusts abroad, prices under trusts, and the like.

LIFE INSURANCE. By Solomon S. Huebner. A. G. Aeplin & Co.

A complete analysis of the principles and practices of life insurance, prepared under the supervision of the National Association of Life Underwriters.

PROBLEMS IN MARKET DISTRIBUTION. By William H. Shaw. A. M. Harcourt University Press.

From 1907 to 1912 the Interstate Commerce Commission was engaged on a comprehensive system of investigation, research and compilation of the analysis and exposition of the Commission's classification of railroad accounts, not a part of the general classification of railroads, the classification of the general principles of railroad accounting, which includes a description of the way in which the accounts are taken up in detail, and methods of accounting prescribed by the Commission are taken up in detail.

SELLING IT. By E. Leichter. Funk & Wagnalls Co.

WRITING AN ADVERTISEMENT. By S. Roland Haverford College, Haverford, Penn. 1 set

An analysis of the methods and mental processes that play a part in the writing of successful advertising.

SOCIAL REFORM. By W. H. Mallock. E. P. Dutton & Co.

An examination into the increase and distribution of wealth from 1801 to 1910.

TRUSTS AND COMPETITION. By John F. Crowley. A. C. McClurg & Co.

Defines trusts, their development and development, their uses and abuses, their utility, restraint of trade, federal policy as expressed in legislation, state of trusts abroad, prices under trusts, and the like.

LIFE INSURANCE. By Solomon S. Huebner. A. G. Aeplin & Co.

A complete analysis of the principles and practices of life insurance, prepared under the supervision of the National Association of Life Underwriters.

PROBLEMS IN MARKET DISTRIBUTION. By William H. Shaw. A. M. Harcourt University Press.

From 1907 to 1912 the Interstate Commerce Commission was engaged on a comprehensive system of investigation, research and compilation of the analysis and exposition of the Commission's classification of railroad accounts, not a part of the general classification of railroads, the classification of the general principles of railroad accounting, which includes a description of the way in which the accounts are taken up in detail, and methods of accounting prescribed by the Commission are taken up in detail.

SELLING IT. By E. Leichter. Funk & Wagnalls Co.

WRITING AN ADVERTISEMENT. By S. Roland Haverford College, Haverford, Penn. 1 set

An analysis of the methods and mental processes that play a part in the writing of successful advertising.

SOCIAL REFORM. By W. H. Mallock. E. P. Dutton & Co.

An examination into the increase and distribution of wealth from 1801 to 1910.

TRUSTS AND COMPETITION. By John F. Crowley. A. C. McClurg & Co.

Defines trusts, their development and development, their uses and abuses, their utility, restraint of trade, federal policy as expressed in legislation, state of trusts abroad, prices under trusts, and the like.

LIFE INSURANCE. By Solomon S. Huebner. A. G. Aeplin & Co.

A complete analysis of the principles and practices of life insurance, prepared under the supervision of the National Association of Life Underwriters.

PROBLEMS IN MARKET DISTRIBUTION. By William H. Shaw. A. M. Harcourt University Press.

From 1907 to 1912 the Interstate Commerce Commission was engaged on a comprehensive system of investigation, research and compilation of the analysis and exposition of the Commission's classification of railroad accounts, not a part of the general classification of railroads, the classification of the general principles of railroad accounting, which includes a description of the way in which the accounts are taken up in detail, and methods of accounting prescribed by the Commission are taken up in detail.

SELLING IT. By E. Leichter. Funk & Wagnalls Co.

WRITING AN ADVERTISEMENT. By S. Roland Haverford College, Haverford, Penn. 1 set

An analysis of the methods and mental processes that play a part in the writing of successful advertising.

SOCIAL REFORM. By W. H. Mallock. E. P. Dutton & Co.

An examination into the increase and distribution of wealth from 1801 to 1910.

TRUSTS AND COMPETITION. By John F. Crowley. A. C. McClurg & Co.

Defines trusts, their development and development, their uses and abuses, their utility, restraint of trade, federal policy as expressed in legislation, state of trusts abroad, prices under trusts, and the like.

LIFE INSURANCE. By Solomon S. Huebner. A. G. Aeplin & Co.

A complete analysis of the principles and practices of life insurance, prepared under the supervision of the National Association of Life Underwriters.

PROBLEMS IN MARKET DISTRIBUTION. By William H. Shaw. A. M. Harcourt University Press.

From 1907 to 1912 the Interstate Commerce Commission was engaged on a comprehensive system of investigation, research and compilation of the analysis and exposition of the Commission's classification of railroad accounts, not a part of the general classification of railroads, the classification of the general principles of railroad accounting, which includes a description of the way in which the accounts are taken up in detail, and methods of accounting prescribed by the Commission are taken up in detail.

SELLING IT. By E. Leichter. Funk & Wagnalls Co.

WRITING AN ADVERTISEMENT. By S. Roland Haverford College, Haverford, Penn. 1 set

An analysis of the methods and mental processes that play a part in the writing of successful advertising.

SOCIAL REFORM. By W. H. Mallock. E. P. Dutton & Co.

An examination into the increase and distribution of wealth from 1801 to 1910.

TRUSTS AND COMPETITION. By John F. Crowley. A. C. McClurg & Co.

Defines trusts, their development and development, their uses and abuses, their utility, restraint of trade, federal policy as expressed in legislation, state of trusts abroad, prices under trusts, and the like.

LIFE INSURANCE. By Solomon S. Huebner. A. G. Aeplin & Co.

A complete analysis of the principles and practices of life insurance, prepared under the supervision of the National Association of Life Underwriters